COMPANY OVERVIEW

Rosyn LLC (operating as Rosyn Labs) is a women-owned, minority-owned technology firm headquartered in Rockville, Maryland. We deliver enterprise Java development, custom software engineering, iOS and mobile applications, cloud solutions, and business analysis, project management, and compliance support to government and commercial clients. We operate as a small, senior, principal-led team — available to lead engagements, embed with existing teams, or support delivery as a subcontractor to prime contractors.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Enterprise Java / Spring Development — design, build, and modernization of mission-critical Java and Spring Boot applications, APIs, and microservices
- Custom Software Engineering — backend services, internal tools, systems integration, and maintainable full-lifecycle delivery
- iOS & Mobile App Development — native iOS applications in Swift / SwiftUI; end-to-end mobile product engineering and release management
- Cloud Computing — cloud architecture, application migration, and deployment on modern cloud platforms; DevSecOps practices
- Business Analysis — requirements elicitation and documentation, process mapping, stakeholder engagement, and user acceptance testing
- Project Management & Compliance — Agile delivery management, reporting, and regulatory / compliance support for enterprise programs

DIFFERENTIATORS

- Principal-led, senior-only delivery — every engagement is executed by hands-on senior talent, not layered overhead
- 20+ years of Java engineering experience — and 8+ years of business analysis and project management experience behind every deliverable
- Women-owned, minority-owned small business — supporting agency supplier-diversity and small-business contracting goals
- Subcontract-ready — structured to team quickly with prime contractors; low overhead, responsive, and flexible engagement models
- Quality-focused, modern engineering — current tooling and patterns, dependable communication, and disciplined, predictable delivery

PAST PERFORMANCE

Rosyn LLC was founded in 2026. Its principal brings more than two decades of hands-on delivery on enterprise Java systems, business analysis, and mobile products for commercial organizations. Representative project summaries and references are available upon request.
